"TEMPLE OF FASHION."

Notice Extraordinary!

I desire to say to the citizens of McConnellsville, that I have the largest and most complete assortment of goods that can be found in any Merchant Tailoring Establishment West of the Mountains.

My stock was selected with the greatest of care, in order to meet the demands of my patrons, and I refer with pleasure to those for whom I have already made garments, to substantiate my statement.

I have a full line of the latest and newest things in Coatings, and a most complete assortment of Pants' goods.

In Suitings, I have Chevoits, Meltons, Kerseys, Hair Lines, &c.

In Over-coatings my stock is very full and desirable. I desire to call especial attention to my Mosaic Beavers. They are, without exception, the best goods ever offered in this market.

I will guarantee, to those who will favor me with their trade, a perfect fit and the best of work at very reasonable prices.

Samples sent to those who wish them. Address,

CHAS. H. BARRETT,
Temple of Fashion, Zanesville, O.

To Our Patrons.

The Chicago fire burnt out the establishment which was furnishing us our outside, and prevented our issuing last week. We have received a letter from our Chicago publisher, and he states that in about three weeks he will be able to resume business. Until that time our patrons will please be lenient in their comments on our paper.

J. C. STONE sends us a map of the city of St. Louis. Thanks.

The next meeting of our county commissioners will be in December.

On Back Run, this county, there have been some reports of smallpox. James B. McGraw has been quite ill, but is getting better.

Notice new advertisements of McConnell, Emerson & Harris; also Chas. H. Barrett.

J. M. Rusk is doing the editorial work on the Zanesville Courier.

CALL on Chas. L. Barrett when you go to Zanesville, and get a new suit of clothes.

Jesse R. Foulke is trying to enliven the columns of the Herald this week.

McCONNELL, EMERSON & HARRIS, of Zanesville, are selling their goods at the lowest figures possible. See Advertisement.

HOME MARKET.—White wheat $1.25 per bushel, red wheat, $1.00, flour, $2.00 per sack, butter, 15 cts. per pound, and eggs at from 18 to 20 cts. per dozen.

The Mite Society of the M. E. Church will be held at the residence of T. D. Cheadle, Tuesday evening, Oct. 23d. All are invited to attend.

The Democrat charges John S. Adair with puffing himself in our last issue. It is true that Mr. Adair does some localizing for our paper during our absence; but the article alluded to by the Democrat was written by myself before we went away. Moreover, the statements in the article are true and more than merited by Mr. Adair.

A PETITION is to be presented to the Town Council, by those owning property on Jefferson Street, asking that it—not the Council, but the Street—be improved.

On Tuesday, the residence of A. J. Landmore, of Bristol tp., with almost the whole of his household goods, were consumed by fire.

Judge Wm. H. Frazier, of Noble County, who was appointed by Gov. Hayes to fill out the unexpired term of Judge Granger, and who has just been elected to that position for the next term, commenced his official career here this week. So far he has given the best of satisfaction.

LARGE APPLE.—There is a Fall Pippin on exhibition at Adair's Book Store, grown by Samuel H. Scott, of Windsor tp., weighing one pound and eleven ounces, and measuring sixteen inches in circumference. Who can beat it?

The vote for Representative in Noble County is a tie. Lots were drawn as to who should be the lucky man, and it resulted in favor of the Democrat. It turns out, however, that there is no law for such a proceeding when choosing a Representative, and the probability is that a new election will have to be held.

Court of common Pleas, of this county, convened on the 11th, Judge F. W. Wood on the bench. It will hold until Tuesday, the 24th. One hundred and eight cases, civil and criminal, are for hearing. The Grand Jury adjourned on the 12th, having found but four indictments—two for selling liquor and two for assault and battery.

Tax editors of the Herald and Democrat make a great deal of fuss about not receiving complimentary aries to the Fair. If the President, Secretary, Treasurer, and members of the Board can afford to pay their way into the Fair Grounds, and that of their families, we should think that editors who are interested in the welfare of our county could do likewise. If the Board had seen proper, of its own volition, to complement the county press, it would have been well enough, but, when such is not the case, we think the editors that growl about it belittle the profession.

THE RAILROAD.

It really begins to look as though we were going to have a Rail Road. People talk of the matter all along the line as one of the settled facts. They are doing much more than talk, too—they are subscribing quite liberally to build it, which is much more effective than talk.

On the 31st a Rail Road Mass Meeting is to be held at Cumberland, and on the 1st of November, there will be one held at Seneca-ville. At the Seneca-ville Meeting, there will be an election of seven Directors by the Stockholders.

Some time, soon after the holding of the Seneca-ville Meeting, there will be one held here.

Shocking Suicide.

A special to the Cincinnati Gazette, of Wednesday, says:

ZANESVILLE, O., Oct. 17. Charles Durben, a young lawyer of this city, while sitting by the side of his wife this evening, who was dying, turned to the attending physician and asked him if his wife was really dying. Being assured that such was the case, he stepped to the foot of the bed, pulled a pistol from his pocket and shot himself through the head, dying almost instantly. His wife died in a few minutes afterwards.

Mr. Durben was one of the most promising young lawyers of Zanesville, and his wife was a step-grand daughter of E. E. Evans, her maiden name having been Miss Lucy Seaman, and she was born in this place. Durben and his wife had been married but a few months, she being sick with the consumption when married. Her folks were opposed to the marriage on account of her bad health, which there was no prospect of improving, but Durben said he wanted to have the privilege of assisting in taking care of her while she did live, and consequently they were married.

MARRIED.

On Monday evening, Oct. 9th, 1871, by Rev. H. Cooper, Mr. Jerome B. Powell and Miss Lucy Adair, both of McConnellsville.

By Rev. C. W. Courtwright, on Thursday, Oct. 12th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. John T. Allison and Miss Nancy Trainer, both of Muskingum County.

Also, by the same, on Tuesday, Oct. 17th, at the residence of bride's parents, Mr. John M. McDonald and Miss Nancy S. McDonald, both of Morgan County, Ohio.

DIED.

DAVIS.—At his room, on Cass avenue, on the 13th inst. P. M., of apoplexy, Thomas Jefferson Davis, aged forty-two years.

At the time of his death, and for a long time prior thereto, he was in the employ of the St. Louis Transfer Company. He had, for a long time contributed to the support of an aged father and mother and widowed sister. His body was placed in the hands of Mr. Smithers to be sent by express to his aged parents in Ohio.

The deceased was a man of strict integrity, faithful and trustworthy to his employers, a good son and brother, a genial and generous companion among his associates, loved and respected where known, and his untimely end will be felt by many outside of the family circle.

—St. Louis Democrat, 14th inst.

The deceased was a son of Henry M. Davis, of Malta tp., and a brother of F. A. Davis, of the Democrat. The remains arrived here in due time and were interred, on Tuesday, in the McConnellsville cemetery. The funeral took place from the residence of Sitts H. Davis.

OHIO!

R. L. JENKINS,

IMPORTER AND DEALER IN QUEENSWARE!

CHINA!
GLASS! AND EARTHEN WARE!

North side of Center street, between East and Penn streets,
McConnellsville Ohio.

REASONS FOR PATRONIZING JENKINS' ESTABLISHMENT!

1st. Jenkins imports his own goods and is thereby able to undersell all who purchase at second hand.

2nd. He has the largest establishment, and most complete variety of goods in South-Eastern Ohio, and you are enabled to get just what you want—do not have to take just what you can get.

3rd. Living amongst us, Jenkins helps to build up the business of the community, and it is no more than right that community should build him up instead of going off to Zanesville, or some such point to buy your goods.
